Come let us observe and start learning about this visit. Me and my friends were made into a group of four to five members and we were enter the Supermarket and saw that all the products were aligned systematically in rows and columns and there were different departments separate for fruits and vegetables for dairy products for groceries for household and for kids zone and women zone & mens zone of clothing, and kitchen appliances, the vegetables and fruits selection also had cold storage facilities which enhances the life expectancy of fruits and vegetables,

Location: We came to know that local Supermarkets are set in a place that is convenient for everyone to visit especially for middle class and upper class customers who frequently shop from local Bazaars.

Maintenance: To startup and Supermarket it requires land, building and in few cases rent is also given to the owner. And they need few permissions to start a Supermarket.

Characteristic and Advantages:

We can buy many brands of products in one roof, there is a vast collection of brands in all products which gives us an option to choose between them.

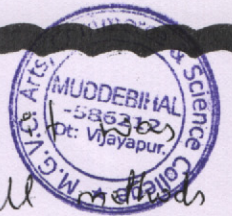

Supermarket also have a kind of facility with the supplier or the manufacturer that if the product is expired they give exchange offer with the better product.

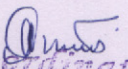

And the people in Supermarkets responds to the customer very kindly and accepts their feedbacks.

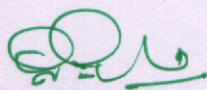

And the Supermarket are under CCTV Camera Surveillance for the safety and also to keep track of shopping in customers who visit frequently and also to be evidence in case of any theft.

One advantage of Supermarket is that they accept Credit Cards and online payment is also done in local street Vendors we cannot use Credit or debit Cards.

Conclusion :- Visiting a Supermarket was very fun. a good opportunities to learn what all Super markets apply and what all it required to start Supermarket, all the Supermarket have So many advantages and perks it also affects traditional formal retailers for example:- Kirana shops, Street vegetables and fruit Vendors. Adapting of this effective method of ease in purchasing or shopping, is better and adaptable.
