REPORT

Title of the Program: Live Streaming of Karnataka State Budget

Introduction:

The Department of Economics organized a live streaming session of the "Karnataka State Budget- 2026 on 06 March 2026 for B.A.2nd, 4th, and 6th semester students. The program aimed to create awareness among students about the state's financial planning and economic policies.

Objectives of the Program:

- To help students understand the structure and importance of the state budget.
- To create awareness about government expenditure, taxation, and development programs.
- To connect theoretical knowledge of economics with practical policy decisions.

Program Description:

During the session, students watched the live presentation of the Karnataka State Budget presented by the Government of Karnataka. Faculty members explained important points related to budget allocations for sectors such as education, agriculture, health, and infrastructure. Students actively listened and discussed the key highlights of the budget.

Learning Outcomes:

- ❖ Students gained knowledge about the budgetary process and state financial management.
- ❖ They understood the priorities of economic development in Karnataka.
- ❖ The program helped students relate classroom learning with real economic policies.

Conclusion:

The live streaming session was informative and beneficial for students. It enhanced their understanding of economic planning and public finance. Students showed great interest and actively participated in the discussion.
